The above law enforcement agents, politicians, judges etc. are but a few of the many who commit these crimes against prostitutes of all ages. Many of those who commit such crimes are never caught, and those who are caught are not always arrested, and if arrested, their case never gets media attention because such cases are thought to embarrass law enforcement etc. and are therefore kept private. Most who are caught, prosecuted and convicted receive very little time for their crimes.

* numbers of arrests may vary from one FBI table to another, usually by as many as 10 to 25

[note- for 2013, under all arrests- the FBI has admitted that it made a 'data entry error' for the number of total arrests in Alaska- the actual number was 48, not 647/ 648- they have stated that they will not correct the error as the printed reports have been mailed out and it would not be cost effective to change their error]
