"Prostitution is Like Rape"

2012 Criminal Victimization Report
FBI Bureau of Justice Statistics:
Page #2

Type of crime	2003	2011	2012
Violent crime ^d	7,679,050	5,812,520	6,842,590 + 1
Rape/sexual assault	325,310	244,190	346,830
Robbery	708,380	447,760	741,760 +

So say psychologist and prostitution abolitionist Dr. Melissa Farley her pals Professor Donna Hughes Professor Janice Raymond... among other notorious prostitution abolitionist thugs, who claim that prostitution is not only LIKE rape, it is also SEX SLAVERY, even if an adult sex worker CHOSE to engage in sex work and there is no coercion involved.

AND according to televangelist Pat Robertson, those who 'traffick' in WOMEN for prostitution and force us 'poor sex slaves' into providing pleasure for money- ought to be executed... even though in many cases, we don't even ARREST COPS who RAPE prostitutes and BARELY punish cops who "pimp/ traffick" MINORS (NYPD Detective Wayne Taylor among others)

In 2012, there were 346,830 REPORTED violent rapes and sexual assaults, which was an increase of 102,640 from 2011. The police managed to arrest a grand total of 15,591 alleged rapists- or 4.5%

But they DID manage to arrest 48,148 people for engaging in commercial sex- 28,901 of those arrests were female ADULTS- none of whom had a criminal complaint filed against them other than the police officer who arrested them...

WHY DON'T THE COPS SPEND THOSE SCARCE RESOURCES PURSUING THE RAPISTS WHOSE VICTIMS REPORTED THE CRIMES AND ASKED FOR HELP? INSTEAD, COPS CAN HAVE SEX WITH A 'SUSPECTED PROSTITUTE' IN ORDER TO ARREST HER "FOR HER OWN GOOD..."

Prostitution investigators may have sex

SPOKANE (AP) — Police agents may engage in sex to carry out prostitution investigations, as long as they don't try to trap anyone into the crime, a Spokane County District Court judge has ruled.

A two-month investigation last fall, which reportedly involved spending $2,000 for two agents to engage in sex acts for evidence, did not constitute entrapment, Judge Daniel Maggs ruled Friday.

"It may violate public morals, but personal beliefs can't be substituted for the law," Maggs said.

Maggs also dropped prostitution charges under a city ordinance against 24 women, but said the women still could be charged under state prostitution statutes.

He ruled city officials who passed the prostitution ordinance in 1971 as an emergency measure failed to prove emergency existed.

Cops Rape Prostitutes

"Bitch- I can do anything I f..king want..."

Thomas John Sadler, San Diego Sheriff's Deputy

2008, to the prostitute as he forced her legs apart and touched her vaginal area. Sadler had a history of assaulting women in the same way dating back to 2001, according to the prosecutor.

Sadler had originally faced five felony charges and was convicted of one... the outcome of the case means Sadler wasn't found to be a sex offender...

"I'm a man. I saw a prostitute and I wanted to have sex..."

Thomas John Sadler, San Diego, California Sheriff's Deputy, upon his conviction in April 2010, explaining why he assaulted and attempted to rape a prostitute. He received a two year prison sentence.

"..the crime was offensive but not worthy of the upper prison term of three years..."

Judge Michael Smyth, in sentencing Officer Thomas John Sadler to two years in prison, despite the abusive history of this officer.

<http://www.10news.com/news/23147187/detail.html>

If assault and attempted rape of a prostitute BY A LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENT is "not worthy" of a prison term of three years, why would the non violent, non abusive, non coercive activity of those who interact with consenting adult prostitutes be worthy of twenty year to LIFE sentences as some so called anti- trafficking laws prescribe?

...it's 'like rape' unless a prostitute is raped by a cop- then it is consensual... according to prosecutors...

"Dallas cops give hookers a choice: jail or Jesus"

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HEARD OF A VICTIM OF RAPE THREATENED WITH INCARCERATION IF THEY DIDN'T ACCEPT THE OFFER TO GO TO CHURCH?

MEANWHILE, LAPD COPS JAMES NICHOLS AND LUIS VALENZUELA, SAN DIEGO COP THOMAS SADLER and so many other cops GIVE HOOKERS A

MUCH DIFFERENT CHOICE-

"A BLOW JOB OR JAIL..."

AND SO FAR, THE LAPD COPS HAVEN'T BEEN ARRESTED OR EVEN FIRED... DESPITE HAVING AT LEAST FOUR VICTIMS.... AND OFFICER SADLER? WELL, THE JUDGE DIDN'T THINK HIS RAPE CRIME WAS WORTHY OF A THREE YEAR PRISON SENTENCE...

Judge Says Law Doesn't Protect Prostitutes, Drops Rape Count

By MARK ARAX, Times Staff Writer

Several jurors have criticized a judge's decision to drop charges against a man accused of forcing a prostitute to have sex with him. The judge's decision was based on the fact that the woman was a prostitute and the man was a police officer. The judge said that the law does not protect prostitutes from rape. The judge also said that the man's actions were not worthy of a three year prison sentence. The judge said that the man's actions were "offensive but not worthy of the upper prison term of three years..."
