Sex arrests: School-bus monitor, Haines City cop charged

One man is accused of procuring underage prostitutes the other faces sexual battery charges.

July 14, 2011 | By Kevin P. Connolly, Orlando Sentinel

Authorities in Polk County today will reveal details about sex-related charges filed against two public employees: A school-bus monitor accused of running a prostitution ring and a police officer accused of sexual battery.

The suspects were not identified in a brief statement to the media today from the Polk County Sheriff's Office.

"The arrests are a result of a joint investigation," the Sheriff's Office said. Both are Haines City residents.

One man is a part-time Polk County School Board bus monitor accused of operating a prostitution business.
