

Three Columbus Police Officers Under Investigation For Allegedly Soliciting Prostitutes

COLUMBUS, Ohio -

10tv.com

2016 Cops Solicit Prostitutes 3 Columbus OH

Three Columbus Police officers have been placed in administrative leave because they are under criminal investigation for allegedly soliciting prostitutes.

Sources confirm to 10TV that the investigation centers on allegations that the officers bought sex.

The crime of solicitation is a misdemeanor.

We are told the investigations are ongoing.

10TV is not identifying the officers because they have at this point not been charged with wrongdoing.

©2016 by 10TV.com. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.