Article Excerpt

A sheriff's deputy accused of raping a Calabasas woman while on duty in December, and raping his wife between January 1993 and May 1995, was charged Thursday with rape and spousal rape.

Deputy Harris Mintz, who technically was assigned to the Lost Hills Sheriff's Station until his arrest Tuesday, faces single counts of forcible rape and sodomy by force, and two counts each of spousal rape and forcible oral copulation.

But the charges against Mintz, 41, followed an 11-month, internal investigation the Sheriff's Department initiated in December, after the alleged attack on the 36-year-old Calabasas woman. Authorities said Mintz was put on leave once that investigation was begun.

The county agreed to pay a $100,000 settlement to the Calabasas woman, who filed a claim June 11. Attorney Paul Norris said his client was raped twice, and that she feared for her safety and life.

The other charges involve rapes and sexual assaults that allegedly occurred between Jan. 1, 1993, and May 25, 1995, at Mintz's home - which is in the area served by the Lost Hills station.
