Los Angeles - A Los Angeles County Safety Police officer was arrested in connection with an alleged on-duty sexual assault of a woman near Los Angeles International Airport, the California

Highway Patrol reported on Friday.

Michael Dee Clark was arrested about 8 p.m. Thursday -- about a week after the alleged crime was reported, said CHP Officer Travis Ruiz.

"On April 1, 2010, the California Highway Patrol received a call from a local news outlet indicating they had received a phone call from a woman who claimed to be the victim of a sexual assault at the hands of an on-duty law enforcement officer," Ruiz said.

Officials believe the assault occurred near the interchange of the San Diego and Glenn Anderson freeways, but details of the alleged attack were not released.

Clark, who was arrested at work, was booked on suspicion of assault under color of authority, Ruiz said.

Anyone victimized in a similar attack -- or who may have witnessed such a crime -- is urged to call the CHP at (323) 259-2010.
