Georgia Police Officer Accused of Sexual Battery

Officer Lee Powell

Temple, Georgia

The Carroll County Sheriff's Office is investigation allegations a Temple police officer sexually battered a woman in front of her child.

Officer Lee Powell was arrested and charged with Sexual Battery, Battery, Cruelty to Children, and False Imprisonment. Court documents allege Powell was fondling the victim and threw her on the couch as her 6-year-old came into the room. She said she was able to use her child's entrance to flee the house.

The Temple police chief put Powell on unpaid administrative leave. He is also looking into Powells on-the-job performance given accusations which surfaced he may have used his position to run tags of vehicles in front of the woman's home.
