Houston police officer, Adan Jimenez Carranza, is accused of sexually assaulting a woman while he was on duty and has been linked to the alleged crime via DNA evidence.

The victim says that she was involved in fender bender with other cars when Carranza came to the scene and directed all parties to a nearby parking lot. She says Carranza handcuffed her and put her in the back of his patrol car. He then waited until the other people involved in the accident left the scene, and raped her in the the backseat. He had his badge and gun on the entire time.

After the rape, Carranza drove the victim to the precinct and booked her in for reckless driving.

PT – Sounds like he knew exactly what he was doing. This probably wasn't his first victim.
