PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP) - A state trooper charged with raping two women in northern New York has been charged with attacking a third woman.

Local media outlets report that 32-year-old Trevor Donah was arraigned Monday in a Plattsburgh court on additional rape charges in an indictment unsealed last Friday. Three days earlier, state police announced they had arrested the 5-year veteran on charges that he raped two women.

Authorities say the rapes occurred between 2008 and 2012 while Donah was off duty and involved women he knew.

Donah worked out of the state police station in Plattsburgh. He has been suspended without pay.

Donah is being held in the Clinton County Jail on $50,000 bail. His attorney, Brian Barrett of Lake Placid, isn't commenting on the case.
