News 5 has learned more about the suicide of former Chickasaw Police Officer Bob Ingle.

Ingle was convicted of raping, sodomizing and sexually abusing his 11-year old stepdaughter Rebecca McEvoy.

Ingle killed himself on Thursday right about the same time he was supposed to be in court for a closed hearing.

Ingle's attorney Mike Harbin says the judge granted the hearing to someone who knew Ingle and wanted to speak to the court before his sentencing on Friday.

Former Chickasaw Police Officer Bob Ingle kills himself instead of showing up for a closed hearing on Thursday.

We asked the attorneys involved but no one would tell us who that person was, citing confidentiality reasons.

Alarm bells went off when Ingle didn't show up. His body was later found at his home in West Mobile with two handguns by his side.

Rebecca's family battled for years to get justice for their little girl.

The 11-year old never got to see her case through, she died in a car crash in 2008.
