Officer Eric Wayne Stone is Charged

« Thread Started on Nov 23, 2006, 9:17pm »

Florence - Bond was set Wednesday morning for a Florence police officer charged with two counts of sexual exploitation of a minor. A judge set Officer Eric Wayne Stone's bond at $75,000. Tuesday afternoon, state police searched Stone's home and tell us they found images on his computer of children engaged in sexual acts.

The state attorney general's office is prosecuting this case. We talked with prosecutor David Stumbo at Stone's bond hearing. Stumbo says, "Through the work that we're doing through the internet crimes arena, we see people from all walks of life and it cuts across different many types of jobs and positions. So, nothing really surprises us anymore."

If Stone is released on bond, he must stay off the internet and stay away from children under the age of 18. He has since been fired from the Florence Police Department.
