JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) - The Bono police chief has been arrested for alleged sexual misconduct. Fifty-two-year-old Police Chief Rick Duhon -- who also is a former Craighead County jail administrator -- was in the county jail in Jonesboro today on a sexual assault charge

The Jonesboro Sun reports that Duhon was arrested by Arkansas State Police criminal investigators after state police received information from a call to their child abuse hotline. The alleged victim was a 14-year-old girl.
