

New Venue Granted For Former Cass County Sheriff's Deputy

By: Shelli Briery

Updated: September 26, 2007

After a change of venue and a mistrial in Bowie County, lawyers for former Cass County Sheriffs Deputy Roger Dale Gentry have been granted a new venue, this time to Franklin County. Gentry faces charges of sexually assaulting a child as well as indecency with a child. Jury selection begins October 19th and a trial date set for October 22nd.