Newport, New Hampshire - June 19, 2009

A grand jury has indicted a former New Hampshire police officer and radio host on child porn charges.

Aaron Aldridge, 42, of Newport, N.H., could get up to 50 years in prison if convicted. Police say he engaged in sexual behavior with a teen over a three-year period and investigators say he produced pornographic videos and images at his home in Newport starting back in 2003.

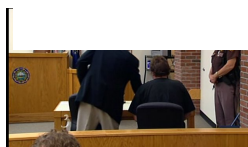

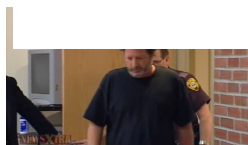

Aldridge is a former police officer in Newport and hosted WNTK's morning show.
