Officer Anthony Miller

Eau Claire - Law enforcement arrests one of its own in a child pornography investigation.

Anthony Miller was arrested on Tuesday. He lives in New Richmond but works in Minnesota. He's been a police officer with the City of Hastings for 11 years.

The Wisconsin Department of Justice says Miller admitted downloading and distributing child pornography for the past 2 years. Investigators also say the criminal activity carried over to Miller's job.

They say Miller admitted using his personal laptop while on duty. Charges were filed against him Thursday afternoon, including one for possession of child pornography. He'll be in court next month.

He's been put on administrative leave from his job in Hastings.

"Cops that lie, need to die!" A police officer that lies to get an arrest or send someone to prison should be shot.

"In the U.S., a cop with a gun can commit the most heinous crime and be given the benefit of the doubt."

"The U.S. Government does not have rights, it has privileges delegated to it by the people."
