Minden police officer arrested for rape

Posted: Jul 08, 2009 10:23 AM PDT
Updated: Jul 08, 2009 10:23 AM PDT

MINDEN, LA (KSLA) -A Minden, Louisiana police officer is now on the other side of a jail cell.

Officer First Class Daniel Murray was arrested after reports that he allegedly raped and molested a 15-year-old friend of the family.

On Monday, the Minden City Council unanimously voted to terminate Murray.

Murray had been on paid leave since January when an investigation began into the sexual assault allegations.

That changed back on June 19th to leave without pay following a Webster Parish grand jury indictment.

Murray is currently being held in the Webster Parish Jail on a $400,000 bond.

worldnow

EXPLORE KSLA.COM

HOME	NEWS	WEATHER	SPORTS
See it, Snap it, Send it	Top News Videos	Detailed Forecast	Athlete of the Week
In Your Community	Arkansas Headlines	Watches & Warnings	Top Sports Video
Links in the News	Texas Headlines	You Track Storms	Send Us a Score
Win & Save	Louisiana Headlines		SEC on KSLA.com
Your Hometown Show	Most Read
America Now	Most Watched
Editorials	Consumer Reports		