FAIRFIELD

A Winters police officer was arrested in Fairfield early Tuesday morning.

53-year-old Officer David Reeves was arrested at the Winters Police Department at approximately 3:50am Tuesday morning. The arrest stemmed from an investigation of lewd acts with a child one day prior in the city of Fairfield.

Reeves was charged with one count of lewd acts with a child and is in custody at a Solano County jail. The 9-year veteran of the Winters Police Department has been placed on paid administrative leave by the agency.

Fairfield Police haven't released information as to how Officer Reeves was connected with the teenage victim.
