In a packed courtroom where he once testified as an officer of the law, former Itasca County Sheriff's Department investigator-supervisor Gregory Alan Snyder of Bovey was sentenced on six felony charges of criminal sexual conduct by Koochiching County District Judge Charles LeDuc at the Itasca County Courthouse

Clad in an orange Crow Wing County Jail jumpsuit and with his wrists and ankles cuffed, Snyder bowed his head as LeDuc sentenced him to concurrent prison sentences, the longest of which was a 217 month prison sentence: 144 and two-thirds month – or 12 years – to be served in prison and 72 and one-third month – or six years – to be served under supervised release, provided Snyder has no disciplinary actions against him while in prison. He will receive credit for 76 days already served.
