OAKLAND, CA (AP) -- Authorities are looking for a former California Highway Patrol officer suspected of molesting his children and possessing child pornography.

Police said Ken Fox, 35, of Oakland abused two of his four children, who range in age from 1 to 8. His wife, Brandie Fox, 26, the children's stepmother, is also accused of abusing the two kids.

She was arrested Wednesday in San Diego on suspicion of lewd and lascivious conduct and possession of child pornography.

Police said the kids, who lived with their biological mother, were encouraged to fondle their stepmother and talk about bondage during visits to the couple's home.
