A former New Castle police officer was sentenced Wednesday to federal charges of production of child pornography. Lawrence Ross Frame, 46, was a detective who had been arrested in August 2009.

Frame videotaped himself having sex with a 16-year-old girl Hogsett said.

Police scoured numerous digital storage devices, finding pictures of the girl.

Numerous federal, state and local agencies were involved in the investigation.

Hogsett said Frame's "actions demonstrated that he was a threat to children."

Frame will be required to register as a sex offender upon release from prison.

"The sentence issued today by the court was significant and just," said Assistant U.S. Attorney A. Brant Cook.
