JACKSBORO (WATE) - Former Campbell County sheriff's Deputy Daniel Ward was convicted Thursday of aggravated sexual assault of a 10-year-old girl.

A jury found Ward, 36, guilty of 10 counts of aggravated sexual battery. The verdict came on the second day of his trial.

The assaults happened between 2003 and 2009.

Ward is scheduled to be sentenced on August 15.

He was a correctional officer and patrol deputy for the Campbell County Sheriff's Office.

Robert 8:23 PM Jul 12	How do these cretins look at a child and think about sex? This is really sick and it happens way too often. He's quite fortunate that he lived long enough to get convicted. Bubba will be so pleased to have a new playmate....."Hey, Danny boy, you dropped yer soap."	+2   Share Flag
