CORPUS CHRISTI (Kiii News) – A former Corpus Christi Police officer is on trial for three counts of indecent behavior with a child.

47-year-old Raul Rodriguez was charged with two counts of indecency with a child in September of 2010. Another teenager came forward in October of 2010 claiming she was victimized as well, a third count was filed then. Testimony began on Tuesday, August 16, 2011 at the Nueces County Court House.

Day one of trial heard from the two investigators in the case. One is with the Corpus Christi Police Department; the other is a Nueces County Deputy. The mother of one of the alleged victims also took the stand. One of the alleged victims is expected to take the stand on Wednesday. No word yet if we'll hear testimony from Rodriguez himself.

If convicted, Rodriguez faces up to 20 years in prison.
