Sheriff's investigator accused of molesting teen girls

By Larry Hartstein

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

A former sheriff's investigator has been arrested on charges that he molested two teenage girls in his home.

Samuel Thomas Wills II, 45, was arrested Monday by the GBI and the Lanier County Sheriff's Office. He was charged with child molestation for alleged incidents involving a 14-year-old and a 15-year-old at his home in Ray City in Lanier County, authorities said.

At the time of the alleged incidents, Wills worked as a Cook County sheriff's investigator.

Anyone with information related to the case should call the Lanier County Sheriff's Office at 229-482-3540 or the GBI's Douglas office at 912-389-4103.
