

BirminghamStar

BirminghamStar.com

Thursday 18th August 2011

Edition 2011/230

More Birmingham News

- More than 100 U.S. youths joining Israeli army
- Deadly bus attacks reported in Israel
- Hazare released and will be allowed anti corruption hunger strike
- President al-Assad claims Syrian crackdown has stopped
- Florida high school terror attack foiled by authorities
- Cell phone records implicated accused in Hariri slaying
- US Stocks Dive; US, European Economies Shake Investors
- U.S. stocks dive as confidence plummets
- Japanese exports fall in July, while trade surplus widens
- IBM unveils computing chips that mimic human brain
- Stock markets can regulate themselves, claims study
- Venezuela moves to nationalise gold mines and recall reserves

Get Birmingham News headlines emailed to you daily.

20 Hotels in Aberdeen

Book your hotel in Aberdeen online Good availability and great rates!

www.booking.com/Aberdeen-Hotels

AdChoices

Selma officer charged with rape

Birmingham Star
Wednesday 12th January, 2011
(Source: CBS 42)

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — A Selma police officer has been charged with raping a teenager. Selma Police Chief William Riley says the officer, Christopher Harris, was arrested on Tuesday and was released on $50,000 bond. Riley says Harris is charged with raping someone over the age of 12 and under 16. District Attorney Michael Jackson says Harris will have an initial court appearance within a few days, and that the case will be presented to a grand jury at the end of the month. Information from: Times Journal, <http://www.selmatimesjournal.com/> ...

Read the full story at CBS 42

0

0

Share this page

Email this story to a friend

Have your say on this story

Your nickname

(required)

Message

Follow us on fragranceX.com

REAL
Fragrances,
Unreal
Prices!

Free
Shipping
80% off
retail