SELMA, AL (WSFA) - A Selma police officer was arrested and charged with rape Tuesday evening.

The Alabama Bureau of Investigation arrested Officer Christopher Harris, who now faces charges of raping a child who is less than 16-years-old but older than 12.

District Attorney Michael Jackson said Harris was booked and taken to the Dallas County Jail where he remains under a $50,000 bond. He'll be arraigned later in the week.

The case will be given to a Grand Jury at the end of January.

Additional details about the alleged crime were not immediately available.

Wow. My IQ went down 10 points reading some of the comments here.

My questions:

-Why would a judge POSSIBLY offer bond for an accused rapist?
