BLACKFOOT, Idaho (AP) — A former adult probation officer in Bingham County in eastern Idaho has pleaded guilty to two counts of lewd conduct with a child under 16 and one count of rape with a female under 16.

The Morning News reports that 32-year-old Daniel Darwin Orders pleaded guilty Friday in 7th District Court. The guilty pleas represent two different cases involving two different victims.

Orders faces a possible life sentence on each of the two counts of lewd contact. He faces up to 25 years in prison in the rape case. He's scheduled to be sentenced Jan. 18.

Orders has been released on his own recognizance until his sentencing.
