[Haines City, FL] A Haines City Police Officer and a Polk County School Bus Attendant were busted for their connections to an underage Prostitution ring.

Thursday, Polk County Sheriff's Office detectives arrested 25-year-old Demetrius Lamar Condry (the cop) for his involvement with the sex-for-money ring. The ring was run by 27-year-old Paul Rosoan Aaron (the bus monitor), who was arrested Wednesday.

"Genuine Quality Entertainment" – or GQE – was run out of a residence at 48 7th Street in Haines City. An investigation showed that the service used juveniles between July 2009 and February 2010.

Two juvenile "prostitutes" were forced to perform sexual acts on customers, with Aaron charging between $60 and $100 for the service.

Demetrius Condry had been one of those customers, driving his agency issued vehicle to GQE dressed in his agency uniform. Condry got his illegal thrills for free in exchange for not turning Aaron in.

Police say he engaged in sex with victims who were between 14 and 15 years of age. Additionally, the victims claim – in police statements – that Condry left his police radio on while receiving oral sex.

Condry is now charged with a host of no-nos including sexual battery by a law Enforcement officer (a first-degree felony), lewd battery (a second-degree felony), and official misconduct (a third-degree felony). He resigned upon arrest.

Aaron is charged with bribery of a law enforcement officer (a second-degree felony), 2 counts of procuring for prostitution a minor under 18-years-of-age (a second-degree felony), and 2 counts of sex trafficking (a second-degree felony).

One of the underage sex slaves said that during a confrontation on the school bus, Aaron had promised her a better gig than the one she had dancing at Plant City's Showgirls Men's Club. When she arrived at the GQE house she was threatened with arrest if she tried to leave.

She and another girl were held for seven months against their will.

The investigation into this disturbing operation is on-going.
