GAFFNEY, SC (WIS) - Agents from the State Law Enforcement Division arrested a former Cherokee County correctional officer charged with molesting a child younger than 11 years old.

Harold Glenn Phillips, 36, of Gaffney, is charged with criminal sexual conduct with a minor less than 11. According to arrest warrants, Phillips is accused of penetrating the child with his finger from September 2010 to July 2011.

SLED agents arrested Phillips on Monday after investigating him at the request of the Cherokee County Sheriff's Office. WYFF reports Phillips started working at the Cherokee County Detention Center on July 20, 2009 and was fired after failing a polygraph test.

Phillips was booked at the Spartanburg County Detention Center. His first court appearance is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon.
