LAFAYETTE LA Feb 24 2011 — A police officer who has been on assignment as a school resource officer at Broussard Middle School has been placed on unpaid administrative leave after he was arrested on sexual abuse charges.

Henry Samuel Bates was booked Tuesday with four counts of molestation of a juvenile and one count of oral sexual battery.

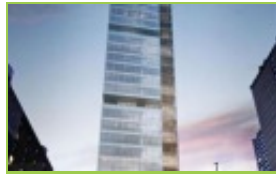

Broussard Chief of Police Brannon Decou says the alleged incidents did not occur at the school and did not involve a current student.

The Lafayette Parish Sheriff's Office received a complaint Monday from a family member of the 15-year-old female victim.

It was not immediately known whether Bates has an attorney
