A former police officer and bus driver charged with aggravated child molestation pleaded guilty today in Floyd County Superior Court and was sentenced to 25 years in prison.

Jeffery David Carter, 50, of 45 The Trail, Lindale, was arrested in November 2010.

Carter pleaded guilty to one count of aggravated child molestation, enticing a child for indecent purposes and one count of statutory rape. He was sentenced to 25 years in prison and a life term on probation.

His trial was scheduled to begin this week before Floyd County Superior Court Judge Jack Niedrach.

Carter, a former Rome police officer, was a Floyd County school bus driver and volunteer with the Civil Air Patrol and TigerFlight in Rome. It was at TigerFlight where police say Carter met his alleged victim.

Carter was denied bail in December. During that bail hearing a police officer reported that the alleged victim told police Carter had sexual contact with her, including sodomy, in his home, vehicle and at the TigerFlight facility at Richard B. Russell Regional Airport.

Carter also facing multiple charges in Cobb County including child molestation, sodomy, enticing a child for indecent purposes and furnishing alcohol to a minor, according to police.
