

News

What can we help you find?

SEARCH

Tuesday, April 3, 2012 | Last Updated: 02:47 pm

Salt Lake City 57° A Few Clouds | Traffic

News Sports Blogs Opinion Money Lifestyle Entertainment Obituaries Jobs Homes Cars Classifieds Shopping SubscribeUtah | Nation + World | Neighborhood | Politics | Justice | Polygamy | LDS Church | Education | Weather | UtahsRight.com | McEntee | Rolly | Online Today

DAYBREAK

Salt Lake Tribune
Weekly Ad Specials

Former Utah Highway Patrol trooper charged with sex abuse of girl

By Aaron Falk | The Salt Lake Tribune

First Published Nov 22 2011 02:01 pm • Last Updated Nov 22 2011 11:36 pm

A former Utah Highway Patrol trooper has been charged with multiple felony counts for alleged sexual abuse of a young girl.

Kevin L. Davis, 60, was booked Tuesday into the Washington County jail and charged a day later in 5th District Court with five first-degree felony counts of aggravated sexual abuse of a child.

According to court documents, Davis abused the girl on several occasions during the past three years.

Davis worked for the Highway Patrol until 2004, a UHP spokesman said, declining to release additional information about Davis' departure from the agency.

Davis remained in custody Tuesday, with bail set at $100,000.

Aaron Falk

Photos

Join the Discussion

» Post a Comment