Scottsboro, AL – A former Section Police Officer is once again behind bars in Jackson County.

27 year old Ryan Keith Evans was arrested Wednesday in Houston County on outstanding warrants. Evans was indicted in March in Jackson County on four counts of 2nd degree Sodomy, two counts of 2nd degree Rape and one count of Enticing A Child For Immoral Purposes and one count of Possession of Pornographic Material.

Evans was brought back to Jackson County on Thursday. He's being held in the Jackson County Jail on $130,000.

Evans was previously in trouble with the law in July of last year. He, along with another man were accused of running a meth ring in the Section area. He was arrested and charged again in September on similar charges.
