Ex-Ohio County deputy on trial on sex charges

The Associated Press

WHEELING, W.Va. -- A former Ohio County deputy is on trial on charges of sexually assaulting a teenage girl.

Sean Marenkovic, 32, is charged with two counts of third-degree sexual assault.

The Intelligencer reported that a State Police officer testified Monday that Marenkovic changed his description of his relationship with the girl between interviews.

Sgt. Scott Adams said Marenkovic denied the accusations in a January interview. In a later interview, Adams said Marenkovic told investigators that he knew the victim and they had discussions that were sexual in content, but Marenkovic said he didn't have sexual contact with the teen.

His trial was to resume Tuesday in Ohio County Circuit Court.
