PA Cop Charged with Corruption of a Minor

Central Pennsylvania police officer charged with corruption of a minor

The Associated Press - July 11, 2011

LITITZ, Pa. — A central Pennsylvania police officer is facing allegations he had inappropriate contact with an underage girl. Thirty-six-year-old Stephen Watson faces a single count of corruption of minors for incidents involving a teenage girl starting when she was 15. State police say the teen claims Watson had inappropriate contact with her up until June of last year. Watson waived a preliminary hearing following his arrest on Friday. He was released on $10,000 unsecured bail. A phone message left for Watson's attorney was not immediately returned early Monday. Watson has been suspended from his job with the Manheim Borough police.
