Ex-Maine police officer charged in child sex case

The Associated Press

FARMINGTON — A former Maine police officer is facing 10 felony charges that he had sexual contact with a Franklin County girl under age 12.

Thirty-nine-year-old Steve Goozey of Coplin Planation was indicted Thursday on the charges that stem from the alleged contact with the girl that occurred between June of 2006, and May of last year.

Goozey worked for the Carrabassett Valley Police Department for about three months in 2010.

Chief Scott Nichols tells the Sun Journal of Lewiston Goozey was let go due to unrelated circumstances.

Goozey was first arrested in March.
