LIVINGSTON, LA (WAFB) - A former sheriff's deputy has been formally charged with several counts of criminal sexual conduct with a minor.

The Office of the Louisiana Attorney General said Clarence "Jeremy" Brister, 37, of Denham Springs was indicted by a grand jury on one count of molestation of a juvenile and three counts of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Attorney General Buddy Caldwell said Brister will be arraigned on Aug. 29.

Brister had been with the Livingston Parish Sheriff's Office before being fired after his arrest on Jan. 11.

He had only been with the agency for 18 months.

Caldwell said a conviction on the molestation charge carries up to a 10-year prison sentence.

Stallone on his son's death

One month after the death of his son, Sylvester Stallone has opened up about his grief.

He added the indecent behavior counts carry up to seven years in prison.
 If convicted on any of the charges, Brister will have to register as a sex offender.
