Eagal Denied Bond in Westmoreland Sex Charges

January 16, 2013, 10:14 am

A court date has been set for a Westmoreland man charged in December with three felonies of sexual misconduct involving a 13 year-old female victim.

Westmoreland County resident and former deputy, 58 year old David Eagal of Long Point Rd. is set to appear March 15 in Westmoreland County Circuit Court to face three felony charges including Carnal Knowledge of a 13 year-old, Crimes Against Nature, and Computer Solicitation.

At Eagal's arraignment last week, he was denied bond.

Eagal is behind bars in the Northern Neck Regional Jail without bond as he awaits trial.

The Westmoreland County Sheriff's Office is assisting with the state police investigation. Anyone with further information is asked to contact state police at (804) 553-3408.
