TOLEDO -- A former Waterville Township police officer has pleaded guilty to looking at child pornography on his work computer.

42-year-old David Kregg viewed and downloaded a nude photo of a young girl on a township computer while on duty.

Kregg will be sentenced April 16. He faces up to one year in prison and would be classified as a sex offender and would have to register once a year for 15 years.

Tribute to survivors of child sexual assault by law enforcement officers.

More police officers are convicted of child sex crimes than all other professions combined. It's law enforcement's "dirty little secret", and one we are committed to exposing. Police officers use their positions of trust to violate our children. Their victims are threatened with physical harm and told no one will believe their word over that of a police officer. Please visit our Facebook pages to learn why cops are attracted to little children and infants, and also to understand why no cop should ever be left alone with any child.
