

Maui News & Information Hub

Sign Up To Our Weekly Newsletter

Search Maui Now

DEALS

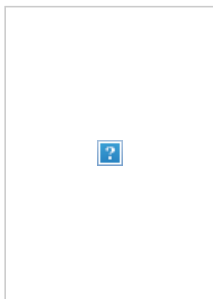

- Home
- News
- Entertainment
- Business
- Surf
- Sports
- Food
- People
- Events
- Opinion
- Election

PRG Digital Integrated Marketing Solutions for a Digital World

UPDATE: Maui Officer Indicted in Sex Assault Case

June 1st, 2012 · 53 Comments · Comments Via Facebook \(10\) · Featured, Maui News Share |

Paul Bailey.

By Wendy Osher

A long-time Maui police officer was indicted today on four counts of sexual assault in the third degree following allegations of sexual misconduct by a 15-year-old juvenile female.

Paul Bailey, 44, served for 18 years with the department and had earned the rank of sergeant.

He was initially placed under arrest on Tuesday, May 22, 2012, at which time he was processed without incident and released pending an ongoing investigation.

Since that time, Bailey turned himself in at the Wailuku Police Station at 12:30 p.m. today (Friday, June 1, 2012), where he was processed and released on $100,000 bail bond.

A court date has been set for Tuesday, June 19, at 8 a.m. in Wailuku.

Bailey is currently on paid administrative leave, until further notice.

Like 15 people like this. Be the first of your friends.

Sign Up To Our Weekly Newsletter

Recommend this on Google

Related Stories:

- Maui Officer Arrested in Alleged Sex Assault Case
- Not Guilty Pleas in Police Sex Assault Case
- Maui Man Arrested For Impersonating an Officer
- Maui Officer Arrested on Family Abuse Allegations
- Sex Offender from Montana Arrested on Maui

Tags: maui officer sex assault·maui police sex assault·maui sex assault·paul bailey·sgt paul bailey

Editor's Note: Maui Now is an open forum and we welcome any views. However, please apply your sense of aloha when posting comments - remarks that are unnecessarily offensive will be blocked.