Ex-MT police officer accused of child sex assault out on bond

Posted: Jul 24, 2012 8:25 AM by Emilie Boyles - KXGN News

GLENDIVE - Former Glendive police officer, and now accused child molester, Taylon Bain is out on $10,000 bond Monday.

KXGN reporter in Glendive Emilie Boyles tells us Bain, 27, faces four counts of sexual intercourse without consent, two counts of sexual abuse of children, and one count of solicitation of tampering with physical evidence- all of which are felonies. The arrest was the culmination of at least two years of investigation.

Boyles says the charging documents identify four female victims between the ages of 13 and 16 beginning in 2004 and going through 2009. Bain's first court appearance is set for Tuesday, July 31st at 10 a.m.
