RIO RANCHO, N.M. -- A Sandoval County deputy is on leave after being accused of sexually assaulting a 9-year-old girl, and now the district attorney's office is deciding how to proceed.

There has been no arrest in the investigation, which has been going on for a few months. Action 7 News recently obtained the 24-page report that describes the back-and-forth between a deputy and a 9-year-old girl.

A few months ago, the girl was sleeping over at a friend's house. The friend's dad is a Sandoval County deputy

"The subject came into the room thinking she was asleep, used her hand to inappropriately touch himself," Rio Rancho police Sgt. Nicholas Onken said.

Action 7 News is not naming the deputy because charges haven't been filed, but the report details inconsistencies in his story and his family's. The 9-year-old's story remained consistent, according to the report.

"Often times when we have a young victim, we see some variance. We had very little variance in this case," Onken said.

The sheriff's office has placed the deputy on leave, but Action 7 News has learned that this wasn't his first incident in Sandoval County. In an unrelated case from a few years ago, charges were filed but later dismissed in court.

The deputy and his family deny the young girl's story throughout the report.

Typically the Sandoval County district attorney would handle the case, but because it involves a county deputy, the Bernalillo County district attorney is looking into it. That office is still reviewing the report to decide if there's enough evidence for a grand jury.

The deputy has been on paid leave for more than three months.

When the cops arrested 'suspected prostitutes' not only is the woman's name published but so is her address.... and that is for adults- why don't we have this pedophile's name so that other families can keep their daughters away from him?

I'd like to take this opportunity and remind everyone that more police officers are convicted of child sex crimes than all other professions combined. It's law enforcement's "dirty little secret", and one we are committed to exposing. Police officers use their positions of trust to violate our children. Their victims are often threatened with physical harm and told no one will believe their word over that of a police officer.

Please take a few minutes and visit our Facebook pages to learn more about this epidemic that is plaguing every police department in the country, and why no cop should ever be left alone around children.

Settle down ladies he is innocent until proven guilty. There is a chance the girl made this story up. Without some kind of physical evidence it will be very difficult to convict.
