CHARLOTTE, NC (WBTV) - Police in Charlotte have arrested a county detention center officer for sex crimes against a child.

Clinton Williams Jr., 32, is charged with four counts of third degree sexual exploitation of a minor, according to the news release from the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department.

Investigators searched Williams' home on Thursday after a tip from the Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office. Child pornography was found on a digital device in the home.

He is currently in the custody of the Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office.

Williams has been with the agency as a detention officer for nine years and police say the Sheriff's Office is cooperating in the investigation.

Police say this is the second arrest made in the past two weeks related to child exploitation.

Detectives also executed a search warrant on August 15th and arrested Gregoro Gonzolas, 35, after locating child pornography on his computer, according to the release.

Gonzolas was arrested and charged with three counts of third degree sexual exploitation of a minor.

He is also currently in the custody of the Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office.
