WILLIAMSON COUNTY, Tenn. - A Williamson County Sheriff's Office employee was arrested on rape charges Friday night.

Police arrested former Corey Gray, 26, of Franklin.

Gray worked in the detention division and resigned from the sheriff's office in December 2012 while he was being investigated for misconduct.

His arrest was made after an indictment by a grand jury.

Gray is charged with two counts of statutory rape. He was released from jail after posting $5,000 bond Saturday morning.

The investigation is ongoing.
