Vigo County Deputy Arrested for Child Porn Possession, Distribution

"No one is above the law." Those words from U.S. Attorney Joseph Hogsett following the initial court appearance Monday of a Vigo County Sheriff's Deputy accused of possessing and distributing child pornography. James Haley Jr., 31, was arrested at his home in Terre Haute.

Investigators said they found more than 40,000 images of child porn on Haley's personal laptop computer and a storage device. Haley has been placed on administrative leave. Court documents say Haley admitted to downloading child pornography from the internet for the past six months. Officials believe he had been sharing that material with others.

"Sad part is we had to arrest one of our very own here in the Wabash Valley," said Indiana State Police Sergeant Joe Watts. "But it has also been a good day for the fact that it shows the people who we work with, the people that we live among, that we will arrest you should a crime occur no matter who you are," he said.

Haley faces a maximum of 40 years in prison if found guilty. He would also have to permanently register as a sex offender. His next scheduled court date is Thursday March 21.
