Felony Warrant On County Jailer Executed

A felony warrant on a 26-year-old Itasca man who worked as a jailer at the Hill County Law Enforcement Center was executed Friday afternoon, August 9. Twenty-six-year-old KC Scott Allen was charged with one count of indecency with a child-sexual contact. According to Hillsboro Police Department reports, a 12-year-old Hillsboro girl made an outcry the last week in June. That led to an investigation by police and Child Protective Services. The suspect allegedly touched the girl inappropriately while at a residence in the 1300 block of Park Drive. Further investigation revealed that a second incident reportedly occurred a couple of weeks earlier at a home in the Osceola area. Texas Ranger Jake Burson has been called to investigate the offense in the county, according to Sheriff Michael Cox. Additional charges could be filed, depending on the outcome of that investigation. Hillsboro Municipal Court Judge Dave Heald set bond on Allen at $20,000.

The sheriff said last week that the employee's termination paperwork had already been prepared Friday afternoon.
