

Former Delta, Ouray officer accused of sex abuse

By The AP Wednesday, August 7, 2013

Wednesday, August 7, 2013

gjsentinel.com

Kevin Cundiff

MONTROSE — A former sheriff's deputy and police officer is accused of sexually abusing a child over a period of years at locations in Delta and Montrose counties.

The Daily Press reports that 44-year-old Kevin L. Cundiff faces felony charges of sexual assault on a child and sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust.

Cundiff is free on an $85,000 bond.

Cundiff worked for the Delta County Sheriff's Office from October 2008 to March 2011. Cundiff left the sheriff's office to work for the Delta Police Department, but he does not work at that agency any longer.

He worked for the Ouray County Sheriff's Office as a reserve deputy from 2004 to January 2007.

The allege abuse occurred at homes in Delta County and in Olathe.

THE DAILY SENTINEL

734 S. Seventh St. Grand Junction, CO 81501 970-242-5050 Editions • Subscribe to print edition • E-edition Advertisers • Sign in to your account • Information