Hampton County, SC (WLTx) - A former school resource officer with the Hampton County Sheriff's Department is facing several charges, including criminal sexual conduct with a minor.

Larry Hewyard, 52, was booked at the Beaufort County Detention Center.

According to arrests warrants, at some point between August of 2012 and December of 2012, Heyward committed of sexual battery with a victim under the age of 16.

One warrant states that he committed the crime while executing the duties as a school resource officer.

SLED says the arrest came as the result of an investigation that was requested by the Hampton County Sheriff's Office.
