

Former Berks police chief admits downloading child porn

buckscountycouriertimes.com

---

A former Berks County police chief who lives in Bedminster will be a registered sex offender for the next 15 years, after pleading guilty Monday in Bucks County Court to downloading child pornography.

Robert Geist, 44, of the 2000 block of Bedminster Road, will be sentenced in about 60 days, following a Sexual Offender Registration and Notification Act review. He pleaded guilty before county Judge Rea Boylan in Doylestown to possession and distribution of child pornography.