- FAIR HAVEN, Vt.
—Police said a 24-year-old former corrections officer allegedly sent a naked picture of himself to two minors.

Chief William Humphries said officers arrested Jay D. McLaren Jr., of Fair Haven, on Monday.

Investigators said they received a complaint last week that McLaren, who worked in Springfield, Vt., had allegedly sent the pictures to a girl in Vermont and another girl in New York.

McLaren is due in Rutland District Court to answer to charges of disseminating indecent material to a minor. The ages of the girls were not released.

Police said he may also face charges in New York state.

He has since been terminated from his position with the Department of Corrections, police said.
