Rochester, NY (WROC)- John Casey, 46, a former Greece police officer, pleaded guilty to possession of child pornography. The charge carries a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison, a fine of up to $250,000, or both.

In March 2014, Federal Agents working undercover online observed Casey sharing images of child pornography on the internet. They were able to download several explicit images of children being sexually abused from Casey's computer. A federal search warrant was then issued for his Greece residence. During the search, they found child pornography images and movies on two laptops which were also linked to the files shared online.

Casey was employed with the department from February of 2011 until May of 2014. He resigned his position at that time.
